

ABORIGINES' PROTECTION SOCIETY,

17, KING WILLIAM STREET, STRAND,

LONDON, W.C.

May 14: 1877

My dear Mr. Garrison:

65

I am very glad to learn that you are about to visit England after a lapse of, I think, nearly ten years.. My wife and I sincerely hope that you will gain health and strength, and add to the hallowed length of your years - by the change..

Your sojourn in London will probably be short.. I therefore

Write in advance to ask you whether you could meet ~~at~~ some old anti-slavery friends at my house - 172 Lambeth Road (about seven minutes cab drive from the House of Commons); and if so, what evening you could spare for the purpose? Very faithfully Yours
W. L. Garrison } F. W. Chesson

P.S. Victor Schœlcher was lately in London. He would like to see you in Paris, whether he has you to perform his duties as a Senator.

His address is in the Pure Meyran.

Forwarded by Mr. J. H. Barker...
